REBELS REACH RWANDAN CAPITAL - BELGIAN RADIO

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Reuter - Invading rebels have reached the Rwandan capital Kigali, Belgian radio reported Friday.

Shots were heard during the night around the presidency, the military school and army headquarters, a Belgian reporter in Kigali said on Belgian radio.

"For the first time, in the night of Thursday to Friday shots were heard in Kigali itself," the reporter said.

The radio said a day-long curfew had been imposed.

Government forces claimed Thursday to have killed more than 200 of the rebels, who invaded the central African state from Uganda, in heavy fighting north of Kigali.
